

Unveiling — Connecting Past and Present

The high point of this historical event came with the unveiling of the Gray Rider. The honor went to two of the oldest surviving retired Troopers who were able to attend — Trooper Charles A. Hall, 86 years of age who served from May 16, 1928 to October 23, 1969 and Senior Investigator Lewis W. Johnson, 87 years of age who served from April 1, 1927 to December 31, 1969 — and three representatives of 170th Session of the State Police Academy, which made a substantial collective contribution to the Gray Rider its class project, Tpr. Thomas R. Ward, Tpr. Andrea L. Hughes and Tpr. Drew T. Billingslea. Together, linking past and present, they unveiled the Gray Rider.

On behalf of the Division of State Police and the State of New York, Superintendent Thomas Constantine accepts the transfer of title to the Gray Rider from Foundation Board Member Richard Olson and Trooper Foundation President Daniel Walsh.

Reunion

With the unveiling ceremony completed, guests turned to greet old friends and comrades and pose for photos with the Gray Rider — a new tradition for members, families and friends of the State Police and visitors to the Academy.

From left to right: Z/Sgt. Vincent J. Martinez (ret.), Z/Sgt. Paul A. Richter (ret.), Major Edward M. Galvin (ret.), Sgt. John Everhardt (ret.) and Major Raymond M. Kisor (ret.). Major Galvin headed the security details of three New York Governors; DeWey, Harriman and Rockefeller, and was probably the most traveled Trooper of all time.

Three who helped make it happen. Paul E. Rooney, designer of monument base, William F. O'Connor, R.A., Deputy Executive Director, Design and Construction Group, NYS Office of General Services and Hy Rosen.

Major James A. Kaljian (ret.), Jim helped research the original cost estimates for the monument project.

The Long Gray Line continues. Lt. Alfred O'Neill (ret.) and daughter, Tpr. Colleen O'Neill Burton.

Sr./Tro. John M. Doyle, Jr. in period uniform with his wife Patricia. John's brother Trooper William G. Doyle was shot and killed in the line of duty on Dec. 14, 1967.

Message from the Chairman

The Gray Rider State Trooper Monument project was for me a labor of love and an opportunity to work with some very selfless and dedicated individuals on something that meant a great deal to each of us.

My portion of the effort to make this dream a reality was inspired by my gratitude for the opportunity to have served as a member of the State Police and by the appreciation felt by myself and my family for the simple fact that when I was injured and disabled on the job, the State Police never abandoned us. The organization gave comfort and support to my wife Marie Claire and our six children throughout that difficult period. There was never a day during the long and painful process of recovery and rehabilitation when members of the State Police family did not visit me. For as long as I live, I will never forget these kindnesses to me and my family.

— Z/Sgt. Paul A. Richter (ret.)
